

Temporary procedures to fax certain Forms 1139 and 1045 due to COVID-19

Fax Form 1139 and Form 1045 to Claim Quick Refunds of the Credit for Prior Year Minimum Tax Liability of Corporations and Net Operating Loss Deductions

In response to the COVID-19 Pandemic and solely to implement the following provisions of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), until further notice, the IRS is implementing the temporary procedures described below for digital transmission of Form 1139 and Form 1045:

- Section 2303 makes several modifications to net operating losses, including requiring a taxpayer with a net operating loss arising in a taxable year beginning in 2018, 2019, or 2020 to carry that loss back to each of the five preceding years unless the taxpayer elects to waive or reduce the carryback; and providing a carryback for a two-year period of NOLs arising during a taxable year that began in 2017 and ended during 2018; and
- Section 2305 modifies the credit for prior-year minimum tax liability of corporations, including to accelerate the recovery of remaining minimum tax credits of a corporation for its 2019 taxable year from its 2021 taxable year and to permit a corporation to elect instead to recover 100 percent of any of its remaining minimum tax credits in its 2018 taxable year.

Only claims allowed under sections 2303 and 2305 of the CARES Act that are made on Form 1139 or Form 1045 are eligible refund claims under temporary procedures described below

Starting on April 17, 2020 and until further notice, the IRS will accept eligible refund claims Form 1139 submitted via fax to 844-249-6236 and eligible refund claims Form 1045 submitted via fax to 844-249-6237. Important note: These numbers are not for general use; taxpayers should not use these for anything besides Forms 1139 or 1045 (and accompanying materials). Other submissions will not be processed.

Before then, these fax numbers will not be operational. We encourage taxpayers to wait until this procedure is available rather than mail their Forms 1139 and 1045 since mail processing is being impacted by the emergency.

File size limitations: A maximum of 100 pages can be initially faxed to either of the fax numbers listed above. If additional documentation is required to be attached or deemed to be necessary, taxpayers will be notified during the processing of the Form 1139 or Form 1045.

1. How does the process change from the normal hard copy mailing requirement?

Previously, these forms could be filed only via hard copy delivered through the USPS or by a private delivery service. There are well-established procedures for processing the hard copy forms in order to provide quick tentative refunds to taxpayers. A temporary procedure to accept these forms via fax permits us to make the relief in the CARES Act available to taxpayers before IRS processing centers are able to reopen. The procedures to process claims generally remain the same, except as noted in these FAQs. (updated April 30, 2020)

2. If I previously mailed in my Form 1139 or Form 1045, can I now fax it to these numbers?

Yes, if you previously mailed a hard copy of either of these forms that is an eligible refund claim (because it contains changes permitted by the AMT and NOL provisions of the CARES Act identified above) after March 27, 2020, you can now submit that same claim to the fax numbers stated above starting on April 17.

3. Is there an order of priority in processing Form 1139 and Form 1045 under this temporary fax procedure?

All claims (including those received before our processing centers were closed) will be processed in the order of receipt.

4. What happens if a Form 1139 or Form 1045 faxed as instructed above is deemed an ineligible refund claim under this temporary fax procedure?

It will be processed after normal operations resume.

5. Section 2303 of the CARES Act amended section 172(b)(1) to provide for a carryback of any net operating loss (NOL) arising in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2021, to each of the five taxable years preceding the taxable year in which the loss arises (carryback period). I am carrying back an NOL to a tax year in which I have a section 965(a) inclusion (section 965 year) and am now entitled to a refund for the section 965 year because my section 965 net tax liability is fully paid. May I use Form 1139 or Form 1045, as applicable, to apply for a refund for the section 965 year?

Yes, you may disregard the instructions for Form 1139 and Form 1045 which prohibit taxpayers from using these forms to apply for refunds for 965 years. The instructions to these forms will be updated to reflect this change. However, please be aware that because the CARES Act added section 172(b)(1)(D)(iv) to provide that a taxpayer who has a carryback to a section 965 year is deemed to have made a section 965(n) election that limits the amount of the loss that can be carried back to each such year, an NOL can be carried back only to reduce income in excess of the amount of the net section 965(a) inclusion. The IRS has issued additional instructions on filing requests for tentative refunds for taxpayers with outstanding section 965(h) net tax liabilities, so that these requests and liabilities can be identified, routed, and tracked appropriately, and so that payment schedules can be adjusted to avoid unintentional or erroneous acceleration of deferred section 965(h) installment payments, delays in refunds, or other processing complications.

6. Will the IRS be establishing a similar procedure for Form 4466 "Corporation Application for Quick Refund of Overpayment of Estimated Tax"?

No, the Form 4466 must be filed in accordance with existing form instructions. If a Form 4466 is faxed to the fax number noted above, it will not be accepted for processing.

7. Will this temporary faxing process become permanent?

No, accepting faxed versions of these forms that are normally delivered through the USPS or by a private delivery service is meant as a short-term measure to assist taxpayers in receiving refunds provided under the CARES Act as quickly as possible.

8. Will the IRS be establishing a similar procedure for Form 1120-X, Amended U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return, or Form 1040-X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return?

No, the Form 1120-X and Form 1040-X must be filed in accordance with existing form instructions. If a Form 1120X or Form 1040X is faxed to the fax numbers noted above, it will not be accepted for processing. (updated April 30, 2020)

9. What will happen if I filed a Form 1120-X/1040-X that has not been processed and I used those numbers in my Form 1139/1045 filing?

Your Form 1139/1045 must reflect your originally filed or previously processed amended information. If your Form 1139/1045 does not match your IRS account, the Form 1139/1045 cannot be processed because the Form 1120-X/1040-X needs to be processed first. For example, if you gave a Form 1120X/1040X to your examination team, it has not been processed.

Do not attempt to fax an amended return at the time of faxing Form 1139/1045. Amended returns will not be acted upon when faxed with Form 1139/1045 through the temporary procedures. (updated April 30, 2020)

10. The current version of Form 1139 (2018) does not provide for tentative refunds for refundable prior year minimum tax credits. How should I complete the Form 1139 if I am only claiming tentative refunds of prior year minimum tax credits? How should I complete the 2018 Form 8827?

If you have a carryback of a net operating loss for the taxable year and are applying for a tentative carryback refund and a 100% refundable minimum tax credit tentative refund, ordering rules apply. You must take into account any adjustments made in applying for the tentative carryback adjustment before determining the amount of the overpayment attributable to the 100% refundable minimum tax credit refund. (Treas. Reg. § 5.6411-1). Caution: adjustments to alternative minimum tax in the carryback years could affect the amount of the 100% refundable minimum tax credit allowed in 2018.

12. What documents should I attach to 2018 Form 1139 for a tentative refund for a 100% refundable minimum tax credit or the NOL carryback?

A. If you are only claiming a tentative refund for a net operating loss carryback, follow the existing instructions for Form 1139.

B. If you are only claiming a refund for the minimum tax credit, you should attach (1) the first three pages of the originally filed or previously processed amended 2018 Form 1120, including Schedule J, (2) a copy of the originally filed 2018 Form 8827, (3) the first three pages of the revised 2018 Form 1120, reflecting the change with the 100% refundable minimum tax credit, and (4) the revised 2018 Form 8827.

C. If you are claiming both a refund for the minimum tax credit and the NOL carryback, follow the existing instructions for Form 1139 for the NOL carryback and the instructions in (B) above for the 100% refundable minimum tax credit refund. Do not attempt to file an amended return at time of filing Form 1139. Amended returns will not be acted upon when filed with Form 1139 through the temporary fax procedures.

13. What will happen if the IRS needs additional information or has questions with my Form 1139/1045?

If there is missing information or questions about your filing, you will be contacted by phone. It is important to ensure your name and phone number are accurately reflected on the Form 1139/1045. The person listed will need to be able to provide the missing information and possibly authentication information. (updated April 30, 2020)

14. I am currently under examination. Can I give the Form 1139/1045 to the examiner?

No, you should not give the Form 1139/1045 to the examiner. You should file it via the normal process or via the temporary procedures outlined within. (updated April 30, 2020)

15. If I need to amend my return by filing a hard copy Form 1120-X/1040-X through the mail (since fax is not available for these forms), can I still file a timely Form 1139/1045 for 2018 for which the time for filing is extended under Notice 2020-26?

Yes. If you need to amend a previously filed return prior to filing Form 1139 or Form 1045, follow normal filing procedures by timely filing hard copy Forms 1120-X/1139 and hard copy Forms 1040-X/1045 as applicable, in order to adhere to any filing deadlines particular to your situation. (added April 30, 2020)

16. If I amend my return by filing Form 1120-X electronically, can I use these temporary procedures to file my Form 1139 using those amended amounts?

Yes. Please notate on the fax cover page that you e-filed Form 1120X and the date that it was accepted. Please note that we will be unable to process your Form 1139 until the amended figures from the Form 1120X have been processed and reflected on your account. The timeframe for processing the Form 1120-X and adjusting the account depends on the particular taxpayer's circumstances. Once our normal mailing operations resume, if your account has still not been adjusted and we are unable to process the Form 1139, we will mail you notification of this status. (added April 30, 2020)

17. When can I expect to get a refund from a Form 1139 or 1045 that was faxed under these temporary procedures?

The statutory timeframe for processing these forms is 90 days. The IRS is mindful of taxpayers' need to get these refunds. As a result, the IRS set up these temporary procedures to process these forms while our normal operations are closed due to the pandemic. In order to do this, the IRS had to create new processes and procedures as well as get our skilled employees available and trained to work these cases remotely. We are working to process these refunds as quickly as possible, with limited staffing, managing the volumes and adjusting to processing these refunds in a remote work environment. (added April 30, 2020)

18. May I use these temporary procedures to fax Form 1139 or 1045 to submit a tentative refund claim for either an NOL carryback or AMT credit associated with a previously filed Form 990-T?

No. The organization must mail an amended Form 990-T to the address shown in the Instructions for Form 990-T; and may attach a Form 1139 or 1045 to the amended Form 990-T to show the computation of the refund claim. (added April 30, 2020)

19. Does the extension granted by Notice 2020-26 apply to consolidated groups?

Yes. (added June 29, 2020)

20. If the last date to file my Form 1139/1045 was extended six months under Notice 2020-26, and the extended due date is a date on or after April 1, 2020, and before July 15, 2020, will I also receive relief under Notice 2020-23?

Yes. Notice 2020-26 granted a six-month extension to file Form 1139 or Form 1045 with respect to the carryback of a net operating loss that arose in any taxable year that began during calendar year 2018 and that ended on or before June 30, 2019. If a taxpayer, including a taxpayer that filed a consolidated return and/or had a short tax year for the applicable loss year, satisfies the requirements of Notice 2020-26, the taxpayer will have 18 months rather than the normal 12 months, after the end of the loss year, to file Form 1139 or Form 1045. Notice 2020-23 granted affected taxpayers until July 15, 2020, to perform specified time-sensitive actions, including filing Forms 1139 and 1045. Under Notice 2020-23, a taxpayer filing a Form 1139 or Form 1045 which is due on or after April 1, 2020, and before July 15, 2020, including as a result of the relief provided in Notice 2020-26, is an affected taxpayer performing a specified time-sensitive action, and will have until July 15, 2020, to file the relevant form. (added June 29, 2020)

21. When does the temporary faxing process described in these FAQs end?

The last day to fax an eligible refund claim under these procedures is December 31, 2020. The fax numbers listed herein will no longer be operational as of midnight on December 31, 2020. The instructions to the Form 1139 and Form 1045 provide the applicable requirements for how to submit these forms to IRS. The end of the faxing process is independent of any filing due dates. For example, the last day to file Form 1139 electing to take the 100% refundable minimum tax credit in 2018, is December 30, 2020. Additionally, if you file one application for a tentative refund and claim both the NOL carryback and the minimum tax credit at the same time, you must file the application by the earliest applicable deadline.
